

Strengthening Military with EvertzAV, Quintech, and ATCI Unified SATCOM / C4ISR Solutions at WEST 2025

Redefining Secure, Mission-Critical Communications in Modern Defense Operations

San Diego, CA — January 24, 2025: EvertzAV, in collaboration with Quintech and ATCI, is excited to unveil its unified mission-critical SATCOM solutions at WEST 2025. These advanced technologies are designed to address the complex needs of modern defense operations, providing reliable, 24/7, encrypted, and resilient communications.

EvertzAV's SATCOM systems integrate Quintech's RF and ATCI's Simulsat multibeam antenna systems to deliver secure, low-latency communication across multiple satellite channels and mediums. These cutting-edge solutions ensure seamless real-time data transmission, enhancing situational awareness and enabling swift responses to any operational challenges.

Key Features of EvertzAV SATCOM Solutions:

- Integrated and Scalable Systems: Unified SATCOM and C4ISR workflows tailored for flexible and mission-ready communication.
- Proven Reliability: Designed for continuous, 24/7 operation in extreme environments.
- Advanced security: Built-in encryption and monitoring to safeguard mission-critical communications.
